III. General professional experience:

Experienced mediator and arbitrator. Entrepreneur and businessman with experience in human resource issues, financial structuring, multimedia programming, derivative intellectual property issues and multiple securities-related issues. Frequent panel chairman for arbitrations. Mediator of family disputes, human resource [employment] cases and environmental disputes with multiple parties.

IV. General pertinent experience:

MB.A. in Finance from Columbia University Graduate Business School. 2nd VP - Chase Manhattan Bank. Lending officer and corporate financier. Commodity financier. Trader in crude oil and by products. Inventor of world's first sit-down, touchscreen-activated turnkey console for the presentation of full screen, full motion, multilingual multimedia programming, patented and trademarked as IVIE®. Negotiator of numerous contracts involving investments, alliances, partnerships and other structurings. Independently studied corporate, antitrust and bankruptcy law as an honors undergraduate in government and international relations. - Clark University.

V. Mediation training:

Successfully completed 3-day mediation course for attorneys and experienced arbitrator/mediators, sponsored by NASD Mediation and the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, taught by Jeff Abrams. Collaborating with Mr. Abrams in adapting this mediation course to a multimedia format for general presentation to groups of mediators in training. Detailed analysis of personality requirements and experience needed to successfully work as a mediator.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

No formal training in the field. As an experienced banker who had a major corporate client go into Chapter 11 and then be liquidated under Chapter 7, I received an ample, first-hand education in bankruptcy law and practice.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience:

Businessman, entrepreneur and financier with experience in banking, trading and the workings of the financial markets. Over twelve year's experience in arbitrating a wide variety of cases in both the securities field and in general business contracts. Self-taught expertise in employment, antitrust and bankruptcy law.
